HAVE YOU A GARDEN?

School Children Urged to Interest Themselves In the Cultivation of Home Gardens.

The Alexandria Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of the following letter, written by President Wilson to the Hon. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, concerning the cultivation of home gardens:

"The White House,
"Washington, D. C.

"My dear Mr. Secretary:

"I sincerely hope that you may be successful through the Bureau of Education in arousing the interest of teachers and children in the schools of the United States in the cultivation of home gardens. Every boy and girl who really sees what the home garden may mean will, I am sure, enter into the purpose with high spirits, because I am sure they would all like to feel that they are in fact fighting in France by joining the home garden army. They know that America has undertaken to send meat and flour and wheat and other foods for the support of the soldiers who are doing the fighting, for the men and the women who are making the munitions, and for the boys and girls of western Europe, and that we must also feed ourselves while we are carrying on the war. The movement to establish garden, therefore, and to have the children work in them is just as real and patriotic an effort as the building of ships or the firing of cannon. I hope that this spring every school will have a regiment in the Volunteer War Garden Army.

"Cordially and sincerely yours,
"WOODROW WILSON."

DR. STEWART RETIRES.

Though Not Yet Fully Recovered He Attends Easter Day Services at Grace Covenant Church.

While he was unable to occupy the pulpit, Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., attended the services Sunday at the Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Richmond. Dr. Stewart's resignation became effective Sunday, and he will leave Richmond in the next few days for another climate in an effort to regain his health. He recently declined the offer of the congregation to make him pastor emeritus of the church.

Dr. Stewart's resignation was accepted several days ago by the East Hanover Presbytery, and he informed members that he planned to spend the summer at Lexington, where he could have complete rest and access to the library at Washington and Lee University, and that he hoped to regain his strength and again take up light work as a result of the long rest.

He declined to be made pastor emeritus of Grace Covenant, he said, in consideration of the church's highest interest, and out of consideration of his own individual interest. Dr. Stewart completed thirty years of service at the church last December, and before the close of the day he was stricken with a severe illness, from which he has not completely recovered.

At the Grand Theater Tomorrow.

The gun crew of the First Battery Field Artillery, of the New York National Guard, assisted in the production of "The Greatest Power," the Metro screen play of patriotism starring Ethel Barrymore, to be seen at the Grand Theater tomorrow. Co-operating with Edwin Carewe, the director, they fired from their three-inch guns the service charges which destroyed a village specially constructed for the purposes of the picture. Miriam Monroe (Ethel Barrymore) and John Conrad, a young scientist, discover the formula for exonite, a high explosive, a little of which inserted into a shell does great damage. It was in the testing of this explosive that the National Guard men assisted.

FOR UNCLE SAM'S BOYS

St. Mary's War Activity Society Providing Places to Sleep, Food to Eat and Books to Read for Soldiers.

Elaborate plans have been formulated by St. Mary's Catholic church branch of the war activities community service for the entertainment of the soldiers who will be at Camp Humphreys and other nearby camps. This branch, composed of men and women, will throw open the Lyceum for the entertainment of the soldiers and 50 cots today were placed in the gymnasium of that institution for the accommodation of soldiers who may spend the week-end in Alexandria. In addition to providing sleeping quarters for these soldiers the women connected with St. Mary's church have arranged to furnish breakfast for every soldier on Sunday morning who may spend the week-end at this hall.

In addition plans also are under way for the general entertainment of the soldiers at this hall. The reading and pool room will be open both day and night for the soldiers, and in its library will be found several thousand books. Writing material also is to be furnished to the soldiers. Another feature for the soldier boys is the shower bath which has been added at this hall in connection with the recent improvements.

Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's church, is working hard to see that nothing will be left undone for the welfare of the soldiers who may have the good fortune to visit the Lyceum. In this work he is going to have the general co-operation of practically every member of St. Mary's congregation. A. D. Montier is now in charge of the Lyceum.

Pigeons for General Pershing.

Paris Island, S. C., April 2.—In response to General Pershing's recent call for 5,000 carrier-pigeons, U. S. Marines here, who have aided the Government in nearly every conceivable manner heretofore, again have come to bat with a pigeon-raising campaign.

The carrier is an invaluable little weapon in the war but is far too scarce for the immediate needs. So the Marines have begun the training of them on the island, having secured 300 of the birds from the homes of various members of the Marine Corps. Starting with short flights on the island and increasing the distance to neighboring town, plans are now being made for trial flights from Washington, D. C., to this camp.

The Marines are hoping to be able to fill General Pershing's order by themselves, and in addition, sending the pigeons across the water already trained in their line of duty.

KILLS BROTHERS IN FIGHT.

Slayer of Two Men With Razor Gives Himself Up to Police.

Harrisburg, Va., April 2.—Tucker Copeland and Odell Copeland, brothers, were killed in a razor fight early yesterday morning with Benjamin Johnson, during a game of crap north of Lykens. Johnson, who surrendered to the police late this afternoon, first killed Tucker and then in another fight soon afterward slashed the other brother.

The fight took place in the back yard of Odell Copeland's home, where the men had been playing. Tucker died on the porch at the home of Dr. J. H. Ulsh, four square distant, where he had gone for assistance. The other man died on the couch at his home. Both men were slashed on the throat and face.

AMIENS WILL NOT FALL.

General Foch Says Germans Cannot Take This Railroad Centre.

Paris, April 2.—"Amiens will not fall."

General Ferdinand Foch, allied generalissimo on the west front, made this positive statement yesterday, adding that he was prepared to guarantee it.

General Foch asserted the big base, which is the chief objective of the German center in Picardy, was safely covered. His confident message sent a thrill through the allied publics. It removes the last vestige of alarm that had been felt for the safety of the great stragetic railroad center.

The Virginia Lunch Room, at 403 King street, which has been closed for extensive repairs, will reopen for business again on Thursday, April 4.

The fire department was called to the five hundred block on South Alfred street last night at 10:45 by a blaze which threatened to destroy a large auto truck loaded with lumber on its way to Camp Humphreys. It was owned by W. L. O'Donnell, of Ellicott City, Md., and had stopped to take on a supply of gasolene, which in some way became ignited. The fire was put out with the aid of the chemical extinguishers, but not until damage to the extent of at least $150 had been done to the truck. It is stated that the driver of the truck left his engine running while the gasolene was poured into the tank on the car. The fire caused quite an excitement while the flames from the burning gasolene blazed high in the air.

SIAM TO SEND 500 FLIERS.

Country Has Developed Splendid Aviators, Says Returning Diplomat.

San Francisco, April 2.—An aviation corps of 500 members will be Siam's contribution to the entente allies, according to Frank D. Arnold, former charge d'affaires at Bankok, who arrived here Sunday from Siam on his way to Washington.

"The Siamese army has developed some splendid aviators," Mr. Arnold said. They seem to take naturally to the work under the instruction of French and Italian experts.

"When I left they were preparing to send over 500 men with a complete quota of airplanes, all of foreign construction."

At the same time the safety of the community will engage the attention of the officers. One dollar is the minimum fine for violating the traffic law.

Special Announcement of the Paulist Choristers.

Early last fall the French cabinet organized what is known as the French Restoration Commission, with ex-President Loubee as its chairman which was to undertake the rehabilitation of the towns and villages of the devastated area of France and Belgium.

The United States Government appointed former President Taft and Charles W. Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, as American directors to work with this commission. The American directors have launched a campaign to secure funds in aid of the ruined towns and cities, and in this connection, the famous Paulist Choristers of Chicago have undertaken to raise $100,000 in a six months' concert tour, embracing the larger cities of Canada and the United States.

For those who may be uninformed concerning this celebrated organization, it may be well to detail some facts regarding it. The choir is composed of 100 men and boys and is reputed to be probably the finest church choir in America.

Twice a year the choir is heard in concert, and on these occasions the largest auditoriums of their home city are filled to capacity attesting the popularity of the choir and of the significance of their performance.

In the fall of 1912 the choir journeyed to Paris, where they participated in the International Musical Congress and at which was gathered the most noted choirs of the world and where examples of the world's greatest music, choral music, was presented. Such was the performance of the Paulists Choristers on this occasion that they were awarded the most coveted First Prize Diploma.

ORGANIZE FOR WORK

Civic and Transportation Bureaus of Chamber of Commerce Enroll Members Last Night—Large Attendance.

The Civic and Traffic and Transportation bureaus of the Chamber of Commerce met last night at the organization rooms, and formally organized. There was a large crowd out especially at the meeting of the Civic bureau, and there is every reason to believe that this division of the Chamber of Commerce is going to be a live one. The Traffic and Transportation bureau, while not so large in numbers, indicated that it was going to be an active organization.

Tonight the Retail Merchants bureau will meet at 8 o'clock and will be followed at 8:30 by the Convention and Publicity bureau. Methods of increasing local trade and of advertising the city will be discussed, and all merchants and other members interested in greater advertising for Alexandria are requested to be present.

The meeting of the Civic bureau last night was called to order by the chairman, Robert S. Jones. There was no attempt made to transact business, but simply to enroll the members of the bureau and outline briefly some of the general duties of the bureau and its method of work. The bureau will be headed by an executive committee of five of which Mr. Jones will also be chairman. This committee will meet several times in the near future to make a survey of civic needs and will make a report on them at the next meeting of the bureau on Monday, April 29th.

The Traffic and Transportation committee, of which Orlando Kirk is chairman, will meet next time at the call of the chairman.

SEES WAR THREE YEARS MORE.

Repeats Threat Made By Von Tirpitz to Loot America to Repay German Losses.

Palm Beach, Fla., April 2.—James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, in an address here for the benefit of the Red Cross, said that we were going to have at least three years more of war, and that he was glad that at last America seemed to be waking up to her work.

"At Verdun," he said, "France had as her national cry, 'They shall not pass!' and I think we shall see its counterpart soon in America. 'They shall not win!'"

He laid stress on the contention that Germany was coming to America to treat her as she did Belgium, if she could, in order to make us pay the bill for the war. He said that Von Tirpitz said to him when he was leaving Germany:

"Our submarine warfare is going to bring Great Britain to her knees, and when we have her where she has to pay us our price, that price will be the English Navy, and with it and our navy we will come to the United States and get what we want."

FLIES WITH LIBERTY ENGINE.

Major Brown Makes Successful Test From Hampton to Annapolis and Back.

Hampton, Va., April 2.—Major Roy L. Brown, the chief flying officer at Langley Field, Sunday made a highly successful test of a Liberty engine by flying to Annapolis, Md., and back to Hampton. Major Brown used a Curtiss R. machine, which had been equipped with one of the powerful Liberty engines. The test proved thoroughly successful, and the trip was made in record time, although nothing official was given out by the army authorities.

Major Brown was accompanied by George Buzane, a civilian flyer, and two mechanicians. The party left Hampton at 9:20 a. m., and returned shortly after 3 p. m.

In further recognition of the high cost of living, the Washington-Virginia Railway Company yesterday gave its trainmen an increase of three cents per hour in their wages. Brakemen receive 25 cents per hour.

SITUATION IN THE WEST

Arras and St. Pol Under Bombardment—Allies Capture Prisoners and Machine Guns.

Paris, April 2.—Arras and St. Pol have been under the heaviest bombardment since Thursday, it was officially announced today. Several civilians have been killed. (Arras is less than three miles from the battle line, while St. Pol is twenty-one miles west and north of Arras, three miles beyond the farthest German advance at that point in 1914).

London, April 2.—Fifty prisoners and thirteen machine guns were taken in yesterday's fighting between the Avre and the Luce (Moreuil region), Field Marshal Haig reported today.

"Between the Avre and the Luce a number of German dead were found. Two enemy counter attacks later were broken up with heavy losses by our artillery. A German battery was successfully engaged at short range and silenced by machine guns.

"On the remainder of the front successful raids were made in the neighborhood of Acheville and Hollebecke where several prisoners were taken and a number of the enemy killed."

(Acheville is four miles southeast of Lens. Hollebecke is three miles southeast of Ypres, in Belgium.)

"In the neighborhood of Hebuturne (eight miles north of Albert) a local enterprise resulted in the capture of seventy-three enemy prisoners and three machine guns.

"Many Germans were killed. A hostile counter attack was completely repulsed."

KILLED BY GUNMEN.

Harry Cohen Meets Death for "Squealing" to Authorities.

New York, April 2.—Harry Cohen, alias Harry Coen, alias Harry Katz, alias "Harry the Yot," gambler and pickpocket, burglar, known to the police as one of the cleverest workers in the world, was shot and instantly killed yesterday in a reception room on the ground floor of his apartment house. The murderer of Cohen escaped.

Like Herman Rosenthal, who had given information regarding gambling to Gov. (then district attorney) Whitman in 1912, Cohen had been "squealing" to District Attorney Swann, because, as he said, certain high and mighty hotel gamblers, who had been zoning the city into gambling districts, had given him a "raw deal."

Joseph Edine, the negro elevator boy, who chased Cohen's slayer, identified Morris Rothenberg, 26, a bartender, arrested late tonight, as the man he had pursued from the apartment house.

"The Devil's Wheel."

A thrilling picturization of life in the Parisian underworld will be shown at the Richmond Theater tonight. It is a William Fox photoplay, with Gladys Brockwell as star, and is called "The Devil's Wheel."

The story tells how a beautiful girl is taken from her home and tossed into the mad life of the criminals of the French capitol. There through her knowledge of a system of beating the roulette wheel, she becomes the queen of the Apaches, and falls in love with their leader. An accident restores her to her former life, but she is unhappy, and realizing that her way lies with the man she had grown to love in the underworld, she returns to him.

PATRIOTISM ABOVE POLITICS.

By adopting resolutions opposing the nomination of a Democratic candidate in the Ninth congressional district this fall ,that part of the Democratic committee of the Ninth district embraced in Bristol has set a sensible example to the committee as a whole, which we hope it will indorse. This is a suggestion of the Richmond Journal. Our cotemporary in this connection says:

"This is no time to engage in a costly and bitter partisan campaign, and the resolutions do well to point out that all patriotic energies should be concentrated in the effort to win the war for democracy rather than be diverted into a doubtful struggle for a seat in congress that is not vital at this time. If the committee as a whole agrees with the views expressed by the Bristol contingent, Mr. Slemp will have no opposition for re-election. The State at large will commend such a step, if taken. The country is facing a war crisis of tremendous import, requiring the undivided energies and resources of all the people. What is proposed in the Ninth district is on a par with the action taken by the Democratic organizations in other states where Republicans have made good war records in congress. In Minnesota, for example, the Democrats have decided to indorse Senator Nelson, who is a candidate for re-election, and in Iowa a like public sentiment promises to return Senator Kenyon, also a Republican, without opposition. It is fair to assume that where Democrats are standing for re-election, having impecable war records, the Republicans will be as liberal-minded in their attitude. It is pre-eminently a time to relegate partisan politics to the limbo of dead causes. For once we agree with Representative Heflin, of Alabama, who thinks that a man who is loyal, be he Democrat or Republican, who is a candidate for re-election, should have no trouble in convincing the people of the advisability of returning him to congress. The issue of Americanism should be paramount. When the candidate's war record is in doubt, it is advisable to contest his attempt to go back for another term. This proposal was voiced by Colonel Harvey at the recent Lotos Club dinner in New York, at which Ambassador Earl Reading was a distinguished guest. Practical politicians, i. e., professional politicians, may sneer at the suggestion as idealistic, but it is more than that: it embodies pure patriotism, and we hope the Ninth district Democratic committee will take that view. Supposing it does break all precedent? Isn't the war doing that in every direction, every day?

"MADE-IN-GERMANY" WAR.

Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers Record, in a recent issue of that paper, suggested that if Germany had waged its war without barbarism; if every soldier in its armies had been a decent man; if there had been no outraging, no murder, no destruction of homes or of churches and cathedrals, Germany would still deserve the utmost punishment that could be inflicted by civilization upon any country because of this unholy war for its own material advancement.

But the world has been engulfed by awful woe; millions and millions have died and other millions have been maimed for life; hundreds of millions have suffered in the agony of seeing their loved ones forced by Germany into this awful war to save the world from German domination and damnation. Women and children have been outraged, the chivalry of the high seas has been supplanted by the foulest campaign of Hell-devised murder of innocent non-combatants that even the devil himself, as expressed through Germany, could devise; the very existence of all civilization has been threatened, and if Germany were to succeed, the whole world would sink back into the dark ages of atheism and barbarism.

We are face to face with all of these terrific realities and all the fearful possibilities the very thought of which staggers mankind.

And all of this has been brought about wholly by this "Made-in-Germany" war, started by Germany for the sole purpose of forcing Germany's domination and damnation over other countries.

These are the facts which our people should fully understand, and then they will slowly come into a realization of Germany's crime, surpassing all the crimes combined of all nations from the very beginning of time. Then they will realize that this "Made-in-Germany" war is indeed a "Made-in-Hell" war and is a fight to the death.

A corporal's guard of pacifists still ask the question: "Why didn't the United States remain neutral and keep out of this maelstrom"? This question was answered a year ago by Representative G. E. Foss, of Illinois, when he made the following indictment of the kaiser:

"As a reward for our neutrality what have we received at the hands of William II?

"He has set the torch of the incendiary to our factories, our workshops, our ships, and our wharves.

"He has laid the bomb of the assassin in our munition plants and the holds of our ships.

"He has sought to corrupt our manhood with a selfish dream of peace when there is no peace.

"He has willfully butchered our citizens on the high seas.

"He has destroyed our commerce.

"He seeks to terrorize with his devilish policy of frightfulnss.

"He has violated every canon of international decency and set at naught every solemn treaty and every precept of international law.

"He has plunged the world into the maddest orgy of blood, rapine, and murder which history records.

"He has intrigued against our peace at home and abroad.

"He seeks to destroy our civilization. Patience is no longer a virtue, further endurance is cowardice, submission to Prussian demands is slavery."

A GAME BREED.

This is a solemn but a proud hour for the American people, as a cotemporary observes. An army of Americans is in the thick of the conflict which is raging in France. They are in it because they asked to be—because they counted it shame and dishonor to stand idle at a distance in their trenches while this great issue was being decided. They went to France to fight for the right, and they came of a game breed that never hears a call to battle without answering it like men.

They went to the front with songs on their lips. If they die, they will not die the death of the slacker or the coward. They will die with "hearts courageous," with the light of splendid heroism in their eyes and in their souls.

We shall weep for those who fall, but our tears will be tears of pride and thankfulness, of undying gratitude and love. They have saved us from being too late; they have saved us from being marked absent in history's roll call in a crisis which may decide the fate of the world. Perhaps the result may depend upon our boys; perhaps but for our gallant one hundred thousand the field might be lost.

God bless them; may the Lord Almighty have them in His keeping, whether for life or death. In this world and the world to come they are ours. It is their happy distinction to save us from the shame of not being represented in the most momentous struggle of the ages; it is their enviable fortune to protect us from the accusing finger of scorn, to add a page of enduring honor and glory to the American name.

Some Food for Thought.

Editor Gazette:

This Republic is engaged in a sanguinary struggle with a merciless, pitiless, blood-thirty nation commonly called "Germany." I do not say that with the idea that I am conveying to any man, woman or child information that they do not already possess. I say it in the hope that those who honor me by reading this to the end will bear that regrettable fact in mind as they read what I think should be food for thought for some of our citizens, especially for some in authority. Everything, no matter how trifling it may seem, that tends to create unrest among our soldiers now training to go overseas, or among those who make up our civilian population, is sweet to the pro-German, here or wherever he may be, who rubs his bloody paws, smiles with glee and licks his gory chops. Enforcement of the Sunday "blue laws" (relics of the days when the ancestors of some of us declared a half holiday and went forth to witness the burning of a "witch" at the stake) does not meet with the approval of a majority of the people who make up the population of Alexandria. At least, that is the opinion of the writer of this communication. I do not think for a moment that there are a great many Alexandrians who believe that the welfare of their souls would be seriously endangered if they quenched their thirst with a harmless glass of soda water on the Sabbath or ate a plate of ice cream or smoked a cigar or a cigarette, or that damnation would be in store for the merchant who sold them any of the articles mentioned. There may be some who hold to this belief, but I do not believe that they are in the majority and time was when we were told the majority should rule. However, speculation is wasting space so I will get down to "brass tacks." Look out for your Uncle Samuel. I predict that some day in the not distant future he is going to stride into this town and talk to us somewhat along these lines:

"Gentlemen, I am out to do my share in the winning of this war and I want you, like good fellows, to line up beside me. I have a bunch of boys down here at Camp Humphreys training for the work in hand, and I am trying to make things as comfortable and pleasant for them as possible. They are going across the Atlantic before long and some of them may not come back. I can see no harm whatever in your merchants opening their places of business on Sunday and selling these fellows such harmless and refreshing things as you have said they must not have on that day. Why, good gracious, when I was a tot, George Washington, who used to live in this neck of the woods, bought a cask of rum (Demon Rum, some call it now) and stood treat for the boys with him when they had put up a particularly good scrap for me one day. By the way, George sent the bill for his treat to the Congress and it was approved, as well as I can remember. We didn't have ice cream sodas in those days. I sometimes wonder what his soldiers would have thought if George had ordered a round of ice cream sodas or nut sundaes for them. Mark you, my boys today are asking for these things—not rum."

Now, when your Uncle Samuel talks to you like that do you not think it would be wise to listen and come across? We do not want it said that he had to visit George Washington's home town and slap it on the wrist. He has done that thing elsewhere and he will do it here. In one such place there were whispers of "German propaganda," but we know that such a thing cannot be said of us, because we believe, aye, we know, that there is not a disloyal official (state or city) in Alexandria. Think this over, gentlemen. Read the first few lines of this communication again and bear in mind that this is not the time to contribute to an unrest that is food for our enemies.

GERMAN PLOT CHARGED.

Negroes Believed Paid to Evade Selective Draft.

Jackson, Miss., April 2.—Charges that German money is being used to encourage Mississippi negroes to evade the selective draft are made in a report filed at the Adjutant General's office today by F. K. Etheridge, state inspector of local exemption boards.

The report declares it has been almost impossible to get negro registrants to respond to the draft, and that C. H. Mason, pastor of a negro church at Lexington, Miss., known as "the Church of God in Christ," has been preaching pro-German sermons and advising negroes to resist the draft.

Three weeks ago, according to the inspector's report, a foreigner, giving the name of Dirmitrims Giannokulion, conducted a week of meetings at the church, and that while in town received a message in code.

The inspector's report said "the Church of God in Christ" had headquarters at Los Angeles. In August last year a $10,000 brick church was built at Lexington, for which local negroes furnished only a small part of the building fund, the report says, and also that the pastor, hitherto an obscure negro preacher, recently erected a $25,000 residence in Memphis.

SECOND INDICTMENT FOUND

S. Dabney Crenshaw IV. Must Answer Larceny, as Well as Arson, Charge.

Charlottesville, Va., April 2.—A certified copy of the lost indictment in the case of S. Dabney Crenshaw IV., of Richmond, indicted last April for the burning of the chemical laboratory at the University of Virginia on January 26, 1917, was supplied yesterday by Commonwealth's Attorney Duke, and the case was set for trial on April 29 by Judge Fishburne, of the Circuit Court.

Yesterday a special grand jury returned a new indictment against Crenshaw on the charge of grand larceny for the taking of platinum and other articles from the laboratory to the value of $2,000. This will avoid any difficulty as to trying the former chemistry student a second time on the same charge, if it is so decided at the conclusion of the arson case.

SHORTAGE IMAGINARY.

Assistant Secretary of Labor Says There is Plenty of Help For Farmers.

Baltimore, Md., April 2.—Belief that a shortage of farm labor exists is largely imaginary, Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor, said Sunday in an address before the Baltimore Open Forum.

"What we need," he declared, "is less agitation about putting women on farm, less talk about the importation of Chinese, thousands of miles away, and more teamwork and mutual confidence. There are plenty of able-bodied men in America to farm American farms, and the Department of Labor will see that they get there."

A careful survey of the government he added, shows that the South is the only section of the country experiencing a shortage of farm help. One reason he gave for a shortage is the fact that some farmers pay poor wages andafford poor working conditions. With products bringing twice the sums of two years ago, the farmer is well qualified to pay more money for help, Mr. Post said.

RESULT OF FAILURE.

Severe Reaction Certain in Germany if Offensive Fails to Bring Peace.

Amsterdam, April 2.—A severe reaction is certain throughout Germany if the great offensive does not bring peace and food conditions do not improve, according to those returning here from important positions where they have studied the situation and talked with officials.

In Cologne, the food situation is so serious that thousands face starvation. Reprisal air attacks have done much to embitter the citizens of several German towns agafnst the Imperial government because of its continuance of the war.

In a recent air raid British airmen dropped bombs on the Baden aniline dye works, killing fifteen and wounding seventy persons. Even greater damage and casualties resulted from bombing in the vicinity of Mannheim and Ludwigshafen.

TAR COAT FOR PROFESSOR.

Teacher in Wisconsin College Punished for Pro-Germanism.

Ashland, Wis., April 2.—Two automobile loads of men took W. A. Schimler, a teacher in Northland College, accused of pro-Germanism, into the woods at midnight Sunday night and tarred and feathered him. He walked back to his boarding house in his night clothes.

Schimler was born in Germany and is 45 years old. He taught French in the college.

Lincoln, Neb., April 2.—Rudolph Schopke, said to be a wealthy banker, of Emerson, Neb., was taken by a crowd of citizens to the edge of that town and given a coat of tar and feathers last Saturda ynight, because he was said to have told Red Cross workers that he owed nothing to the United States, according to a report here. Schopke is said to be an enemy alien.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

Young Sisters Lose Their Lives When Fire Destroys Their Home as They Sleep.

Oxford, N. C., April 2.—Three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart, of Conwell, fourteen miles from here, were burned to death Sunday night while they slept in a fire which destroyed the Hart residence. Their ages were seven, eleven and fourteen years.

U-Boats Hold Up Ten Ships.

Madrid, April 2.—Ten large trans-Atlantic steamships are lying idle in various harbors of Spain on account of the submarine menace, having cancelled their sailings for America.

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.
I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

FIVE THOUSAND QUIT WORK.

Other Trades Join Carpenters' Strike in Norfolk District.

Norfolk, Va., April 2.—With the strike admittedly spreading to other trades, it is estimated that fully 5,000 men, principally union carpenters, have quit government work at the various government bases and the navy yard during today. The union leaders claim that there are a great many more than this number out, but the figures are believed to be approximately correct.

Work at the Hampton Roads naval base, at the army depot at Bushs Bluff, and the ordance depot at Pigs Point, is almost at a standstill. Carpenters employed by contractors in construction work at the navy yard have also quit, tying up this work. The aviation field at Hampton is also involved.

Estimates place the number out at the naval base, where the trouble originated, at 3,000. All union carpenters failed to report yesterday morning, and a number of members of other trades refused to go to work when they were informed the walkout was on, as threatened. The great majority of these were plumbers, sheet metal workers, pipe coverers, engineers and shovelmen. At Bushs Bluff 500 carpenters quit work and were followed by member of other crafts, including plumbers, sheet metal workers and electricians. Reports show that all carpenters and some of the other union workers are out at Pigs Point. At Langley Field it is said 506, principally carpenters, walked out.

A significant action of the day was the announcement of Chairman Burroughs, of the Norfolk county draft board, that his board would immediately review all classifications, and that men involved in the strike with deferred classifications, would be immediately placed in Class 1. The boards of Norfolk and Portsmouth will take similar action, it is said.

Union leaders last night declared that the strike was not a union movement, but individual actions by the men. They deny union sanction has been given for a walkout. Government officials and contractors declare, however, that the bulk of the strikers are union men, and that this is proof of concerted action. The fact that a number of the men employed are not union members is admitted, however.

Maj. Butler, at the army base, announced late yesterday afternoon that a few of the men had been persuaded to return to work, and this is the first known break in the strike movement. It is also announced that the War Department has ordered Maj. Gitchels to Norfolk, to take charge of the situation and attempt to effect an adjustment.

No disorders are thus far reported.

PARIS BOMBARDED AGAIN.

Pope Sends Deepest Sympathy to Archbishop for Deaths on Good Friday.

Paris, April 2.—The bombardment of Paris by long-range German guns was resumed yesterday afternoon.

Mlle. Germaine Franciere, auxiliary nurse at the American Ambulance at Neulily, was one of those killed in the church which was struck by a German shell on Good Friday.

Cardinal Amette, archibshop of Paris, yesterday received the following telegram from Rome:

"The Holy Father, deploring the fact that the bloody conflict which already has caused everywhere so much suffering, has again, on the very day of the Savior's passion, found more innocent victims, who are still dearer to his heart owing to their faith and piety, expresses his deepest sympathy. He sends the apostolic blessing to all the faithful in Paris, and desires to know if it is necessary to send material aid to the families in mourning."

The Cardinal has received the following letter from Grand Rabbi Israel Levi:

"Your Eminence, I am the interpreter of the feelings of all my French coreligionists in saying that I share in the mourning which has come to so many families devastated by sacriligious barbarism. We are one in pious indignation at the crime which seems to have been intended as an insult to what humanity holds most sacred."

SPANISH TRADE HALTS.

Big Steamers, Fearing U-Boats, Cancel Sailings for American Ports.

Madrid, April 2.—Ten large transatlantic steamships have canceled their sailings for America and are lying idle in various harbors of Spain on account of the submarine menace. Thousands of tons of freight are lying on the docks at Cadiz, Barcelona and Corunna awaiting cargo space. Heavy losses are being sustained in consequence.

The Government is receiving a great number of telegrams protesting against the blockade and asking re-establishment of commerce with America.

LOOK FOR OFFENSIVE.

No Less Than Forty Divisions of Austrians Said to Be Ready for Attack On Italy.

Washington, April 2. — Imminent danger of an attack by the Austrians in great force upon the Italian lines was emphasized yesterday at the Italian Embassy. Recently the Embassy published a statement that no less than forty divisions had been gathered by the enemy along the battle lines, and now information comes that these troops have received the essentials of food, artillery and munitions, for which they have been waiting.

Recalling incredulity with which the Italian advance warnings of the tremendous onslought of the combined Austrian and German armies on the Isonzo last year were received by the allies, the Italian military authorities now are said to earnestly hope that attention will be paid to the danger which again impends.

Italian military men are confidant that the Italian line in the neighborhood of Lake Garda will be the salient point. The immediate objective of the Austrians is expected to be the city of Breccia on the east of the lake and another attack may be directed on the west with the purpose of breaking into Lombardy. The principal Italian munitions and army supply factories are located in Lombardy and Piedmont ,and, besides securing these, the Austrians might put themselves in a position to swing their forces northward into France, re-inforcing the Germans from the south against the French right wing.

Great quantities of supplies have come to the Austrian army from Russia, according to dispatches to the embassy. The Germans recently announced that they had foregone claiming the rich stores of food in the Russian Ukraine country in order to meet the more pressing need of the Austrians.

On the other hand, the Italians are said to be in desperate need of food. It is known that only about one-third of the Italian army of 3,000,000 men is now being maintained on the battle lines, and the official explanation is that there is no food and not enough guns and ammunition for the remainder.

The British and French troops sent to Italy to check the Austro-German advance last fall are still in Northern Italy, and it is said that instead of having them withdrawn to meet the pressing need for man power in France, the Italian general staff desires to send Italian troops to join the British, French and Americans in that quarter ,trusting to the allies' superior commissariat to feed them.

HUNDRED-MILE GUN.

United States Will Produce Cannon Which Will Surpass That of Germany.

Tests conducted by experts of the Navy Department Ordnance Bureau indicate that a recent model of the 16-inch naval gun ,if modified in construction, will hurl a 9-inch shell approximately 105 miles, or 35 miles farther than the gun used by the Germans in shelling Paris.

Experiments for the creation of a long-range cannon have been given careful consideration by officials of the Navy Department who are determined that America shall be prepared for any war emergency, whether it be a sea attack upon Heligoland or a defense of Atlantic ports.

THREE CIVILIANS KILLED.

Authorities in Quebec Say Civil War Has Been Inaugurated.

Toronto, April 2.—A dispatch from Quebec says a battle has been fought in St. Roche, in the lower part of the town, and that three civilians have been killed. Snipers are said to be firing at the military from windows.

A dispatch filed at midnight from Quebec says it looks like the opening of civil war. Maj. Gen. Lassard says that the situation is now too serious for discussion.

GROWING DISSATISFACTION

Russian and Rumanian Peace Terms Bring Condemnatory Articles in Heretofore Loyal Newspapers.

Growing dissatisfaction with the Russian peace is evidenced in extracts from the German liberal and majority socialist press made public yesterday. The organs of these parties, hitherto loyal to the government, profess their dissatisfaction to the point of threatening to vote against the next war credits.

In an article in the government socialist Frankfurter Volkestimme of March 6, Herman Wendel, government socialist leader, says the Russian peace means the collapse of the German socialist peace program.

"After this peace with Russia," he writes, "after this peace with Rumania, extorted from a choking and collapsed adversary, what becomes of all the flowery talk about a peace of accommodation and the rights of self-determination, disarmament and a league of nations but a faint reverberance and smoke? The policy of might is triumphant. It is true that we (the socialist party) have been successful in very small things but for the sake of these bagatelles should we vote war credits in order that German regiments may fulfil the glorious duty of overcoming a revolution in Finland? The party can no longer support this war policy, it cannot assent to this peace, it cannot vote new war credits."

The Muenchner Neueste Nachrichten, progressive, warns that the Russian peace will prove a continual source of danger in future peace negotiation and afterwards. The Berliner Tageblatt says that the German was never so poorly informed about Russia and predicts that the mass of Russian sentiment is for the prolongation of the war. The Boersenzeitung, liberal, says the chancellor will have great difficulties passing his war credits this week. The Frankfurter Zeitung prints a resolution of the socialist party of that city calling on its representatives in the Reichstag to repudiate the Russian peace and demand that the Chancellor make a clear declaration on Belgium.

Other papers condeming the peace are Hamburger Echo, Schwaebish Tagwacht, Mannheimer, Volkstimme and Chemnitzer Volkestimme.

FISH DESERT RHINE RIVER.

Shortage Seriously Affects Food Situation in German Provinces.

Washington, April 2.—Even the River Rhine has cast its scorn on the German populace.

"The Rhine has become more and more empty of fish," is the cry uttered by the Deutche Tageszeitung, recent editions of which have arrived here.

The Tageszeitung complains that so scarce has fish become in the German provinces that eels sell at enormous prices and the quantities of sea fish, which used to be sold at reasonable prices, are a thing of the past.

KILLED BY FALL OF PLANE.

Lieut. Byron Jackson, Jr., Loses His Life at Call Field.

Wichita Falls, Texas., April 2.—Second Lieut. Byron Jackson, Jr., of the American Aviation Service, was instantly killed at Call Field about 4:30 p. m. yesterday when the machine in which he was flying crashed to earth, out of control, from a distance of 1,500 feet.

A cadet who was with Lieut. Jackson was slightly injured. Lieutenant Jackson's home was in San Francisco.

HUN LOSS OVER 275,000.

Some Divisions Lost Half Their Men, French Dispatch Says.

Washington, April 2.—A French official estimate of the German losses in the great battle on the western front puts their casualties at between 275,000 and 300,000 men. The Germans are sending most of their wounded to Belgium, it is declared, to conceal from the German people their heavy sacrifices.

It has been impossible to identify, the dispatch says, nearly 100 German divisions. Some divisions had to be relieved at the end of the first day after losing more than half their men. The dispatch follows:

"After an eleven days' offensive, during which the Germans have recklessly pushed forward their attacking waves, one may gather a fairly accurate estimate of their losses.

"In the first place, it has been possible to identify nearly 100 of their divisions since the beginning of the offensive, more than 10 of which were twice engaged. Some divisions had to be relieved at the end of the first day, having lost more than half of their men. Such was the case of the Forty-fifth and Eighty-eighth. The latter has been nearly entirely wiped out. Among these that have suffered the most are the 5th, 12th, 28th, and 107th divisions, as well as the 2nd (Prussian guard), the 16th, the 21st, and 26th divisions of reserves.

"In the second place, an enormous number of corpses were found on the battle ground, and the prisoners on being questioned acknowledged the extent of the losses of their respective units.

"To conceal from the German people the heavy sacrifices that their offensive methods required, the Germans are sending most of their wounded to Belgium.

It is not an exaggeration to estimate the total of their losses at between 275,000 to 300,000 men.

EQUIPMENT OF DUTCH SHIPS

President Disregards Holland's Protest Against Seizure of Vessels.

Washington, April 2.—Undeterred by the sharp tone of the Dutch official statement on the requisitioning of Netherlands ships by the United States, President Wilson yesterday signed an executive order taking over all of the tackle, equipment, coal and stores on board the requisitioned vessels. As in the case of the ships, the order provides that full compensation shall be paid to the Dutch owners of the incidentals.

The reply of Holland on the requisitioning of the ships will not alter the determination of the United States to use the ships as it deems best. Officials here expressed some surprise at the tone of the Dutch answer. One official declared it descended to personalities rather than made any argument on the law or equity of the case.

GRANTS MEN TEN PER CENT.

New Jersey Corporation Increases Refining Plant Pay Roll.

New York, April 2.—The Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, last night granted all of its refinery plant employes a flat wage increase of 10 per cent from yesterday. First class bricklayers and watchmen will be given only a 5 per cent increase. The recent raise to lead burners will exclude these.

The general increase will effect more than 30,000 employes. It will ultimately be extended to the subsidiary corporation, the Standard Oil Company, of Louisiana.

FOUND SHOT IN A ROOM.

J. E. Buckley Believed a Suicide Through Brooding on War.

Brooding over the war is believed by the police to have led to the death of James Edward Buckley, 1337 L street northwest, Washington, who was found dead in his room yesterday afternoon, from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the temple.

Buckley had not been seen since Saturday. A woman boarder at the house told the police that she thought she had heard a shot about 4 o'clock, yesterday morning, but was not sure. The condition of the body showed that the man had been dead about 10 hours.

According to the police, the dead man had been under surveillance by agents from the Department of Justice for the last few days.

A note to Coroner Nevitt was found in Buckley's coat asking the coroner to have his body cremated and his ashes scattered over the Potomac. An unsigned check, on the Riggs Bank for $85 to cover cremation expenses, accompanied the note.

The dead man, according to the police, is well known as a physician in Chicago.

COLOSSAL STRIKE IMPENDS.

Fight For Increased Pay Not Fighting United States.

New York, April 2.—Marine workers at the port of New York to the number of about 70,000 will strike today unless their demands for an increase in pay are granted by their employers, it was decided today at a meeting of the Marine Affiliation. The meeting debated the proposed strike for more than four hours.

The threatened strike will depend upon the outcome of a conference today between a delegation sent by the Marine Affiliation and former Gov. Bass, of New Hampshire, who is head of the National Adjustment Commission of the United States Shipping Board. The conference will be attended by eighteen men from the Marine Affiliation, three from each of the six organization which will be affected.

Included among those threatened to strike are tidewater boatmen, marine engineers, pilots and members of the International Union of Longshoremen.

The quarrel of the men is not with the Federal government, it was declared, but with their employers.

FIND GLASS IN BREAD.

Following Discovery, New York Food Commissioner Issues Warning to Public.

New York, April 2.—Warning to the public "to be most careful in the future when eating bread, rolls, cakes and pastry" because "jagged bits of glass have been found in flour, bread and bread wrappers" was issued by the Federal food board here Sunday.

The warning added that "complaints of this character have been sufficiently frequent to warrant the board in publishing this warning, much as it dislikes to be put in the position of seemingly to unduly alarm our public."

According to the board, no organized attempt to work injury by placing glass in bread has been found, but such acts are attributed to malicious persons engaged in the bakeries and factories affected.

"Housewives should examine bread after it has been cut and made ready for the table," says the warning.

KILLED GOING FOR DOCTOR.

Man About to Become Father the Sixth to be Killed at Crossing

Chester, Pa., April 2.—James Wilson, 22 years old, met a tragic death at 3:35 o'clock yesterday morning, at at the Marcus Hook crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad, when he was instantly killed by an express train. The automobile that he was driving at the time was demolished completely. Wilson was on his way to summon a doctor, as his wife became a mother 15 minutes after he was killed. The couple were living with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Chestnut.

This is the sixth fatality that has occurred at this crossing since Christmas.

Killed By Police Chief.

Millen, Ga., April 2.—Frank Godbee and R. C. McNorrill are dead and J. E. Parnell, chief of police, was wounded as the result of a shooting encounter here Saturday night. McNorrill and Godbee, it is alleged, had been firing a rifle at Godbee's home and when an attempt was made to quiet them Godbee is said to have fired at Parnell, wounding him in the hand. Parnell returned the fire, killing both men.
